Tendering for Care Briefing

Intelligent commissioning

Increase awareness of the how can commissioners and the third sector cooperate to meet the needs of the most disadvantaged

Understand how EU procurement rules affect the compact

Understand what the sector needs to do to influence commissioning

There is a lot of confusion about the perceived difference between commissioning and procurement and how EU regulations impact on commissioning. Some people are equally uncertain about how the Compact fits into the picture. This half day aims to clarify how the 3rd sector and commissioners can work together to ensure that the commissioning of local services that meets the needs of disadvantaged communities without breaching the law or the Compact.

As a result of this half day seminar, participants will:

- Have an increased understanding of how can the 3rd Sector and Commissioners work together to commission better;
- Be able to identify the barriers to barriers to Intelligent Commissioning and consider how the barriers can be removed;
- Improve their understanding of how EU procurement rules affect the compact;
- Raise their awareness of ways in which the 3rd sector can influence commissioning;
- Understand how 3rd sector organisations can successfully interact with and influence the commissioning process.

All participants will receive a CD containing slides and documents relevant to the matters covered during the briefing.
